After at least one year off the Board, a former Director may again be appointed, subject to all then-applicable qualifications.

3.4. GENERAL POWERS.

(a) COLLECTIVE AUTHORITY AND DUTIES. The Board shall govern collectively; no individual Director may bind the Corporation or School unless expressly authorized by Board action. (a) Annual and Regular Meetings. The Board shall hold an annual organizational meeting each fiscal year and at least one regularly scheduled public meeting in each calendar quarter, as required by NRS 388A.320. (c) Open Meeting Law. The Board is a public body. All deliberation and action within the Board's jurisdiction shall occur at a duly noticed public meeting unless a specific statutory exception applies. Serial communications, polling, email approvals, and written consents shall not be used to deliberate or take action outside a lawful meeting. The Secretary shall cause agendas to be posted and provided to the sponsor when posted, and approved minutes shall be submitted to the sponsor within the period required by NAC 388A.525.

3.6. REMOTE PARTICIPATION. Directors may participate by telephone or remote technology only in a manner permitted by NRS Chapter 241. The meeting notice must identify the authorized means of participation, the system must permit simultaneous communication and required public access, and a remotely participating Director counts as present for quorum and voting purposes.

3.7. QUORUM AND VOTING. A majority of the voting Directors then in office constitutes a quorum. Unless a greater vote is required by law, the charter contract, the Articles, or these Bylaws, action is approved by a majority of the votes cast by Directors present when a quorum exists. Abstentions do not count as affirmative votes. A meeting may not continue to transact business after the loss of a quorum.

3.8. ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING. The Board shall not take action by written consent, email, polling, or other means outside a duly noticed public meeting except to the limited extent expressly authorized by applicable law. The Secretary shall ensure that notices, agendas, supporting materials, minutes, and governing records are prepared, posted, retained, and submitted as required by NRS Chapter 241, NRS Chapter 388A, NAC Chapter 388A, the charter contract, and sponsor requirements. The Secretary shall also track Director terms, qualifications, applications, affidavits, training, disclosures, and membership-change notices.

4.6. TREASURER. Deposits, disbursements, and signatures shall be made only under Board-approved policies and authority.

4.7. SCHOOL LEADER AND STAFF. The Governing Body shall select, supervise, evaluate, and, when appropriate, remove the administrative head of the School in accordance with NAC 388A.110, the charter contract, and applicable law. or sponsor policy reserves to the full Governing Body.

5.3. OPEN MEETING LAW. Each committee that is a public body, including an advisory committee governed by NAC 388A.200, shall comply with NRS Chapter 241. Meetings shall be noticed, open, accessible, and documented as required by law; serial communications and action outside a lawful meeting are prohibited.

5.4. QUORUM AND VOTING. A majority of appointed committee members constitutes a quorum unless a greater number is specified by the Board or required by law. Committee action requires the affirmative vote required by NRS Chapter 241 and may be taken only at a duly noticed meeting with a quorum present.

5.5. RESIGNATION, REMOVAL, AND VACANCIES. A committee member may resign by written notice. The Board may remove or replace a committee member and fill a vacancy at a duly noticed public meeting. A vacancy does not eliminate otherwise applicable quorum requirements.

ARTICLE VI: DISSOLUTION

Upon dissolution, closure, revocation, or termination of the charter contract, the Corporation shall comply with NRS Chapter 388A, NAC Chapter 388A, the charter contract, sponsor directives, applicable public-asset disposition requirements, and NRS Chapter 82 to the extent consistent therewith. After payment or lawful provision for liabilities, assets purchased with public funds and education records shall be transferred or disposed of as required by law and the sponsor. Any remaining charitable assets shall be distributed only to one or more organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code whose purposes most closely advance public education, and no assets shall inure to a private person. If lawful distribution cannot otherwise be made, a court of competent jurisdiction in Nevada shall direct distribution consistent with these restrictions.

As determined by the Directors pursuant to Section 3.4, the Corporation may pay compensation to Officers, Subordinate Officers, and members of an Executive Committee (other than government officials) for the performance of personal services which are reasonable and necessary to carry out the charitable purposes of the Corporation. The Corporation shall not compensate the Directors for services rendered in their capacities as Directors, provided, however, that no Officer, Subordinate Officer, or member of an Executive Committee shall be prevented from receiving reasonable compensation by reason of the fact that the officer, subordinate officer, or member of an Executive Committee is also a Director. Such compensation shall not be excessive and in no event shall such compensation exceed that which would ordinarily be paid for similar services rendered on behalf of either charitable or non-profit organizations under similar circumstances. The Directors shall (i) comply with the Corporation's Conflict of Interest Policy in Addendum A to these Bylaws; (ii) keep a record of the vote of each Director with respect to compensation and the basis for such Director's vote; and (iii) consider the following factors when determining the reasonable compensation of Officers, Subordinate Officers, and members of Executive Committees for their services rendered on behalf of the Corporation:

- (a) The individual's qualifications;
- (b) The nature, extent, and scope of the work to be performed;

As determined by the Board pursuant to Section 3.4 above, the Corporation may reimburse the Directors, Officers, Subordinate Officers, and members of Executive Committees (other than government officials) for any reasonable and necessary expenses actually incurred by such individuals in carrying out the charitable purposes of the Corporation. The Directors shall comply with the Corporation's Conflict of Interest Policy in Addendum A to these Bylaws in all instances where reimbursement is made to a Director, Officer, Subordinate Officer, or member of an Executive Committee.

Any Director or Officer may, by an instrument in writing, but shall be under no obligation to, waive any of its rights or any conditions to its obligations hereunder, or any duty, obligation or covenant of any other Director or officer, but no waiver shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the Director or Officer making such waiver. This policy is intended to supplement but not replace any applicable state and federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

A.2. DEFINITIONS. Capitalized terms used in this Addendum have the same meaning given to them in the Bylaws. In addition, the following terms, as used in this Addendum, shall have the definitions set forth below:

(a) "Interested Person" means any Director, Officer, Subordinate Officer, or member of an Executive Committee with Board delegated powers that has a direct or indirect Financial Interest, as defined below.

(b) "Financial Interest" means a Person that has, directly or indirectly, through business, investment, or family:

i. An ownership or investment interest in any entity with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement;

ii. A compensation arrangement with the Corporation or with any entity or individual with which the Corporation has a transaction or arrangement; or

iii. A potential ownership or investment interest in, or compensation arrangement with, any entity or individual with which the Corporation is negotiating a transaction or arrangement. Compensation includes direct and indirect remuneration as well as gifts or favors that are not insubstantial.

A.3. PROCEDURES.

(a) Duty to Disclose. In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an Interested Person must disclose the existence of the Financial Interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to each Director, Officer, Subordinate Officer, or member of an Executive Committee with Board delegated powers considering the proposed transaction or arrangement.

(b) Determining Whether a Conflict of Interest Exists. After disclosure of the Financial Interest and all material facts related thereto, and after any discussion with the Interested Person, he or she shall leave the Annual Meeting or Special Meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. Those remaining in the Annual Meeting or Special Meeting shall decide if a conflict of interest exists. A Financial Interest is not necessarily a conflict of interest. A Person who has a Financial Interest may have a conflict of interest only if the Board or appropriately designated Executive Committee decides that a conflict of interest exists.

(c) Procedures for Addressing the Conflict of Interest.

i. An Interested Person may make a presentation at an Annual Meeting or Special Meeting regarding a potential conflict of interest, but after the presentation, such Interested Person shall leave the Annual Meeting or Special Meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving the possible conflict of interest.

ii. The Chair shall, if appropriate, appoint a disinterested Director or Executive Committee to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement.

iii. After exercising due diligence, the Board or committee shall determine whether the Corporation can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest.

iv. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the disinterested Directors or appropriately designated Executive Committee shall determine by a majority vote whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Corporation's best interest, for its benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination the Board or appropriately designated Executive Committee shall make its decision as to whether to enter into the transaction or arrangement.

(d) Violations of the Conflicts of Interest Policy.

i. If the Board or appropriately designated Executive Committee has reasonable cause to believe an Interested Person has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the Interested Person of the basis for such belief and afford the Interested Person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

ii. If, after hearing the Interested Person's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the Board or appropriately designated Executive Committee determines that the Interested Person has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

A.4. RECORDS OF PROCEEDINGS. The minutes of all Annual Meetings or Special Meetings wherein a potential or actual conflict of interest is disclosed, discussed, voted upon, and rejected or approved, shall contain:

(a) The names of the Persons who disclosed or otherwise were found to have a Financial Interest in connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, the nature of the Financial Interest, any action taken to determine whether a conflict of interest was present, and the decision by the Board or appropriately designated Executive Committee as to whether a conflict of interest in fact existed.

(b) The names of the Persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the transaction or arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement, and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings.

A.5. COMPENSATION CONFLICTS.

(a) A Director who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that Director's compensation.

(b) A member of an Executive Committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation for services is precluded from voting on matters pertaining to that member's compensation.

(c) No Director or member of an Executive Committee whose jurisdiction includes compensation matters and who receives compensation, directly or indirectly, from the Corporation, either individually or collectively, is prohibited from providing information to the Board or any Executive Committee regarding compensation.

A.6. ANNUAL STATEMENTS. Each Director, Officer, Subordinate Officer, or member of an Executive Committee with Board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement which affirms that such Person:

- (a) Has received a copy of this Addendum;
- (b) Has read and understands the policy on conflicts of interest set forth in this Addendum;
- (c) Has agreed to comply with such policy; and
- (d) understands the Corporation is a charitable organization and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption with the IRS it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish one or more of its tax-exempt purposes.
